

ADVANCED AND SPECIALTY FLY TYING CLASSES

Objective	These classes will offer instruction on a range of fly patterns and tying techniques to be determined by the instructors. Classes may include destination specific patterns, salmon fly, small fly, vintage fly, chez nymph, midges or other patterns.
Location	4500 Wadsworth Blvd., Wheat Ridge, Co 80033,
Audience	This course is intended for individuals who are proficient at most basic patterns and want to learn to tie more specialized, unique or advanced fly patterns.
Trainer	HPD club members to be determined
Class Dates and Times	Saturday, November 5 2011, 1 to 3 PM Saturday, January 28, 2012, 1 to 3 PM Saturday, February 18, 2012, 1 to 3 PM Saturday, March 17, 2012, 1 to 3 PM
Topics	Fly tying for specific destinations Water type Seasonal considerations Anticipated hatches Successful patterns Recent fishing reports Materials Selecting the right hooks and materials for the selected patterns. Flies to be completed Instructors will determine patterns to be tied. Specialty and advanced fly tying This category will be reserved for highly specialized fly tying and may include, but not limited to, tying salmon flies, vintage salmon flies, bass bugs, pike flies, salt water flies or other unique patterns determined by each instructor. Materials Selecting the right hooks and materials for the selected patterns. Flies to be completed Instructors will determine patterns to be tied
What students need to bring	Students will provide their own tools.
What is the cost	Cost will be between $5 and $10 depending on flies being tied. Cost will be determined by the instructors prior to registration deadline.
How to register for the class	Students must register at least one week in advance of the class. You may register on line or by calling the instructor.